BAR HARBOR FOLKS LAUGH AT AMATEURS IN A CABARET SHOW

Benefit for the Local Hospital Entered into with Keen Spirit and Made a Large Success.
Tango Artists and Six Girls as Italian Street Singers Are Made Famous.
Record of a Week of Social Importance—Though Some Cottagers Begin to Leave Others Arrive.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 16.—The last week was by far the most important socially of the season as yet. Dancing held sway at almost every entertainment. The chief functions of the week were the dinner dance at the Swimming Club sponsored by Mrs. William Lawrence Green and the annual benefit for the Bar Harbor Hospital, which this year took the form of a cabaret show. Miss Susan Sturges, a Boston debutante, was in full charge and gave a programme made up principally of amateur talent that attracted the cottage element in full force. The offerings proved most entertaining. There was wild and enthusiastic applause after Mrs. A. G. Wellman and Irving Beebe performed a tango. Another number that proved attractive was a band of Italian street singers, including Mrs. Edwin Mende, Henry Lane Eno and Miss Susanne Dabney.

Other features included a song and dance specialty by twelve young men and women and a Castle walk by Mrs. Dave H. Coddington and John H. Potter. The song and dance specialists were Miss Hannah Wright, Miss Adelaide Townsend, Miss Claudia Phelps, Miss Anita Sturges, Miss Williams, Miss Lillian Edicott, Roger Sturges, J. A. Baker, Francis Weld, Linzee Weld and Henry Taylor, who has taken two prizes at the Swimming Club this season awarded for graceful dancing.

In the afternoon there was the dancette at the club for the children of Bar Harbor which assembled nearly all of the youngsters in the colony. They came in fancy dress attire and had the time of their lives.

Several luncheon parties were given at the club in the afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. James Mitchell, Mrs. John Thatcher and Mrs. C. S. Van Rensselaer. There were also a number of dinners in the evening preceding the dance. Those entertaining included Mrs. Benjamin Chen, Mrs. William Lawrence Green and Mrs. M. Megarage Wright, Mrs. Robert McCormick, Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Mrs. John Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Telford.

One of the largest luncheon parties of the week was given by Mrs. Warner Mifflin Leeds at Mosley Hall in honor of Mrs. Lindley Garrison, wife of the Secretary of War, who is visiting Mrs. Thomas Walsh at Bar Harbor. Mrs. Walsh will give a luncheon party on Wednesday and a dinner on Thursday for Mrs. Garrison.

THOUSAND ISLANDS GIVE PARTY TO THE CHILDREN

ALEXANDRIA BAY, Thousand Islands, Aug. 16.—One of the most attractive parties of the last week at the Thousand Islands was that given to the children Monday at the Thousand Island Yacht Club.

Among the little guests were Jean Peacock, Clover Miles, Jack Hayden, Eleanor Hayden, Irene Peacock, Marie Jenny, Dorothy Havemeyer, Waring Gillespie, Goughlin Gibbons, Eleanor Gibbons, Herbert Rubenstein, Lee Rumsey, Jr., Peter Hayden, Master Hayden, Little Miss Boldt, and in fact all the children of the cottage colony. Mrs. J. Miles Gibbons and Mrs. John West Horner acted as hostesses.

Social life has been brilliant during the last week and there have been a number of dinner parties held. Among those entertaining during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coppel, Gen. John A. Johnson, A. S. Terry, F. P. Terry, George C. Boldt, J. Morgan Lister, Mrs. Thomas Gillespie, G. Leverett Hayden, Mrs. Edmund S. Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley.

The date for the polo game between the Cleveland Freshcutters and the Thousand Islands Eel Flies has been set for August 23. This will inaugurate the first polo tournament of the Thousand Islands Polo Club.

A race between the fast hydroplane P. D. Q. III, owned by A. Graham Miles of New York, and the hydroaeroplane owned by John West of New York was arranged for Thursday.

UNUSUAL INTEREST IN TENNIS AT LAKE GEORGE

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., Aug. 16.—An unusual amount of interest is shown this year in tennis, with Sagamore court a mecca for most of the players on the lake. The midsummer tournament, which is closing this week, has nearly a hundred entrants. Prominent among the players are: Russell Gates, P. T. Gates, Miss Simpson, Miss Keller of New York, and Miss Holmes, who is the champion of Smith College. Also Messrs. Ray Anderson and E. D. Huttlinger of Brooklyn. Many of the contestants came from Pearl Point, the Hamlet at Huletts, Glenburnie and Hague, and great enthusiasm is evidenced.

The base season is proving the best for many years. So successful have been some of the Marion guests that fishing paraphernalia is at a premium at that place.

Miss Frances Stary and her sister, Miss Leah Gladwell, arrived this week at the Sagamore for the summer. Miss Stary is very busy studying the new play which she is to produce under the direction of Belasco the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beeson are making

Among the dinner hostesses was Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, who entertained Friday evening at Elnore, with Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge of New York as guest of honor. Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison gave a luncheon party of twelve at Greenway Court.

On Thursday evening A. Eugene Gallatin of New York was host at a fancy dress ball at the Swimming Club, which was one of the most attractive events of the week. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. A. Mansfield Patterson will give a dance in their barn and on Friday night comes the second subscription dinner dance at the Swimming Club.

Mrs. Sheffield Phelps and Mrs. Edward Pendleton gave dinners at the Malvern Wednesday evening preceding the regular weekly hop.

Mount Bertrand de Sartiges, who has been a guest at the Malvern, left this week for Newport.

Among the late cottage arrivals is Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard of New York, who, with his family, is occupying Hillcrest on the Highland Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lee Satterlee will close Great Mead next Wednesday and go to Highland Falls, N. Y., for the autumn. The Satterlees were among the late arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. James Speyer, who have taken Foxwood Villa, will return to Scarborough-on-the-Hudson the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gurnee and Miss Belle Gurnee, who have been in Europe, are here for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Nicholas Brown of Newport is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. McGee at the Woodlands.

There was a large attendance at a chamber recital by the Dolderino Trio at the home of Mrs. Thomas Walsh Tuesday morning. The programme proved so attractive that it will be repeated at another recital by request.

Ruth St. Denis in her Hindu dances will be the attraction at the Building of Arts Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Parsons and daughter, Miss Le Brun Parsons, who have been at the Malvern, left this week for New York to join Mr. Parsons, who returned from Europe. They will spend the remainder of the season at Newport.

Mrs. John B. Henderson of Washington will close her cottage this week and, accompanied by her son, John B. Henderson, will go for a trip to Canada.

COOL, PLEASANT WEATHER FOR SPORT AT SACADAGA

SACADAGA, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The week at Sacadaga has been clear, cool and pleasant. Out of door amusements, including golf, tennis, baseball, boating, fishing and automobile, have been popular with the throng of people who are spending their vacations in this beautiful section of the Adirondacks.

The most important social affair of the week is the hop taking place at the Adirondack Inn to-night, where in addition to the many people who are registered there a number are present from nearby cities.

Among the late arrivals at Adirondack Inn are Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gibb, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Peabody and son, Miss May Curry, Miss Sallie Curry, New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Laig, and Dr. and Mrs. J. Keyes and family, Brooklyn.

SUMMER PEOPLE AT KINEO GO TO CLAMBAKE

The most enjoyable, unique and in many respects remarkable outing ever held at Moosehead Lake, was the "Clambake" given at Cowan's Cove to-day by Commodore Arthur B. Waring of New York. All members of the Moosehead Lake Yacht Club and their friends were invited and covers were laid for over a hundred. Shortly after midday a dozen boats sped away from Kineo to Cowan's Cove where luncheon was ready. Scarcely had the cigars been lighted when a band of Indians, paddling a war canoe, hove in sight around a bend in the cove, came ashore and gave a paganant.

Among those present were ex-Gov. and Mrs. Frank B. Weeks of Connecticut, E. P. Ricker of Poland Springs, A. C. Staples of Lewiston, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rowland and Howard Rowland of Philadelphia, George W. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. R. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. John Reilly, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Clark, Mrs. M. D. Patterson, Miss Elsie Patterson and Commodore and Mrs. A. B. Waring.

The exhibition of horse jumping held Wednesday was a marked success and drew a large gallery. F. Spiegelberg, Jr., son of Justice Spiegelberg of New York, made the best showing.

Late visitors here are Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Horner and baby and Miss McCann of New York, who are registered at the new Mount Kineo House. Arrivals on the 10th included Mrs. L. B. Taylor and Miss Taylor and maid of New York, here for the remainder of the season. Other season visitors registered at the new Mount Kineo House are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tyson and John J. O'Brien of New York. Tuesday's arrivals included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Welch, child and nurse, of New York, who are well known at Kineo.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lowe of New York

POLAND SPRING FOLK HAVE ROLLICKING DANCES

POLAND SPRING, Me., Aug. 17. Varied social and sporting activities make the life at Poland Spring interesting these August days. For their most rollicking affairs the younger visitors go to a neighboring town. And there in a hall they romp to their hearts' content.

The Dry Mills dance on Tuesday evening was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, Jr., Miss Weller and Mrs. William (Gledd) of Paterson, N. J.; Mrs. E. Le B. Gardner of New York, Miss Gardner, Prescott Gardner, Gladys Robbins, Miss Kellogg, Mrs. Porter, Clyde Shannon, Mrs. Peterson, Fay, Miss Alice Guernsey, Misses Pauline and Annette Lake, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morrison, Mrs. Thomas Francis Shaw and Arthur Taylor, all of New York.

Two New York ladies, Mrs. W. W. Ladd and Mrs. Rogers Birnie, won prizes at a card party given by Mrs. William Painter of Baltimore at the Poland Spring House this week. Others from New York who participated were Mrs. Irving Schmelzel, Mrs. Porter Shannon, Mrs. Joseph E. Guernsey, Mrs. M. B. Hoffman and Mrs. J. L. Porter.

Ex-Speaker J. G. Cannon of Danville, Ill., with Congressman John W. Dwight of Dryden, N. Y., spent most of this week at the Poland Spring House.

Mrs. Clarence Mackay, who is spending the summer in the vicinity of Portland, was a recent visitor at the Poland Spring House.

OLD ORCHARD NOW LOOKS AHEAD TO A MARDI GRAS FETE

August 28, 29 and 30 Have Been Selected as the Dates for the Celebration at the Beach.
Annual Missionary Offering at Alliance Convention Amounts to More Than $45,000 in Pledges and Collections.
The Gideons Association of Travelling Men Holds a Three Days Convention—Many New Arrivals.

OLD ORCHARD, Me., Aug. 16.—Arrangements are being made speedily for the Mardi Gras celebration at this beach, and August 28, 29 and 30 have been settled upon as the dates. Several floats have been already promised for the parades which will be held each day. The cottagers have been asked to decorate their homes and to light them in the evening, so that the whole town should present a gay appearance on this festive occasion.

The meetings of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, which held its twenty-fifth annual convention on the Old Orchard Camp Ground, closed Monday. Last Sunday the Rev. A. H. Simpson preached his annual missionary sermon, which a congregation of 15,000 heard. The annual missionary offering of pledges and collections was taken then and amounted to more than $45,000.

The Gideons Association of travelling men held a three day conference early in the week. These Christian travellers aim to place Bibles in all the hotels, and this was a means of furthering the work of the New England division. The meetings were well attended and several special features on the programme were of particular interest.

Mrs. A. C. Reed and Miss Frances Reed of New York are enjoying an outing at the Granite City Hotel.

The Misses Louise M. Clogher and Mary C. O'Sullivan of Elizabeth, N. J., have come for a short stay at the Boyden House.
